

Faded Blues FFA Alumni

To whom it may concern:

The Faded Blues FFA Alumni plays a key role in providing funding and student services to the agriculture students of Granville Central High School and Vance Charter School. By providing donations for the quarter auction, you will not only help our students and advertise for your business, but also help the agriculture sector in the United States as a whole. By simply donating, you can help us change the lives of agriculture students because together, we are agriculture.

Through the donations made to our organization, we can continue the Future Farmers of America's tradition of premier leadership, personal growth, and career success. We can help the Granville Central and Vance Charter FFA students by providing them a fund to continue their education in the field of agriculture. We can provide the supplies to help them gain the knowledge to be successful in life. We can provide the world a better future through the leadership the FFA teaches. Through all the great achievements our organization provides to its members and its beneficiaries, we can grow today's students into tomorrow's leaders.

All donations given to this organization are invested into the student's future. As a non-profit organization, we pride ourselves into giving our all to see these student's succeed, it's what we do. This organization is made up of former FFA members whose lives have been changed thanks to this great organization. We plan on continuing that tradition, none of which could be possible without donors like you. With every donation you make you help secure the future of an FFA student. Thank you for your continued support of the Faded Blues FFA Alumni Organization!
